MEMPHIS APPEAL.

IMPORTANT PETITION TO GEN. ORD.

CHICOT COUNTY, ARK., ASKING FOR PROTECTION.

Deplorable Condition of Affairs.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

I inclose you a copy of our petition to Maj. Gen. Ord as promised. I regret I did not get a letter of introduction from you to him. I learned on my way to Memphis, that the counties and parishes south of Chicot, on the Mississippi river, are making similar applications to the Military for protection. Bread riots and seizures of cotton have occurred in Carroll parish. Yours, etc., J. F. B.

To Maj.-Gen. Ord, Commanding the Fourth Military District, etc.

The petition of the undersigned citizens, Grand Jurors, Judges and other officials of the county of Chicot, in the State of Arkansas, respectfully showeth; that the colored population of said county is largely disproportioned to the white population, constituting nine-tenths of the whole; that the result of the present year's operations is the failure of the freedmen to make provisions to feed them and their families until first of January next, and the utter ruin of the planting interest—not one in ten of our planters will be able again to renew planting as formerly, and cannot feed or employ the freedmen and their families, now, depending upon them for support; that the freedmen, as a general thing, throughout the county, are already depredating upon our stock, and the agent of the Freedmen's Bureau is unable to prevent their depredations, and by the first of February we believe they will nearly have consumed all of our stock, unless some means can be devised for supplying their wants.

Your petitioners further show that a collision between the races is apprehended as the result of their depredations on stock and other property, a contingency which your petitioners most earnestly desire to avoid.

In consideration of the foregoing, your petitioners earnestly request that you will order a company of troops under an efficient officer, to our county, for the protection of our families and property, and that you will use your official influence to procure a necessary food for destitute colored families in our county, and that you will give us all the aid within your power towards obviating the troubles anticipated.

All of which we respectfully submit for your consideration.

THE ST. DOMINGO HURRICANE.

It was not so much a hurricane proper as a furious drenching storm of rain. It began at about eight o'clock a.m., and blew in fits and roaring gusts till past midnight. The great damage to the shipping and larger buildings in the city was done at the beginning of the blow. But all during that terrible day the wind and rain seemed to combine to continue steadily the work of destruction. The first crash of the gale unroofed whole streets of thatch-covered houses, and shook and loosened tiles on flat-roofed Moorish palaces, built by the younger followers of Columbus more than three hundred and fifty years ago. Old trees that had withstood the gales of centuries, fell as if the ax was at their foot. The rain came down in such masses that it seemed as if a mountain torrent was running through the air, bearing on its surface leaves and branches of trees, fragments of timber, hats, handkerchiefs, and a miscellaneous lot of dry goods (dry no longer), and even fruit. Cocoa nuts were whirled through the city like cannon balls, and added to the fright of some who thought the horrors of another siege was to begin.

The poorer classes, who were driven out of their houses, snatched hastily what little poor valuables they happened to possess and waded through the flowing streets to the churches. Their blessed doors stood open as usual, and never did more stricken wanderers pass their portals. The grand old cathedral on the Government square, begun, as an inscription over the front entrance informs us, in 1514, and completed in 1540, was crammed with a weeping, terror-stricken multitude. There was not a living thing to be seen in the streets except when, at long intervals, some desperate adventurer, at the risk of his life, would pick or crawl his way along under the lee of the walls left standing, from one to the other of the old churches, in search of some missing relative or friend.

What added to the dreadful gloom was the ponderous thump of the breakers all along the line of the sea-wall of the city, which at times seemed to shake the very foundations of the churches, and caused a cry of "earthquake" in the crowd. Thank heaven this appalling crown of disaster, which has been withheld for the many centuries from this venerable and historic city—once the metropolis of the Western world—was spared to us. In the midst of the universal consternation which prevails there is a sentiment of gratitude in the breasts of these poor, destitute Dominicans that matters are no worse. Their churches were comparatively uninjured, and this these simple-minded devotees regard as a special token of remembrance of heaven.

Before this late visitation, Santo Domingo City was famous chiefly for its magnificent ruins, and one revisiting the city to-day would not at first glance be impressed with any sudden change wrought in the fortunes of its inhabitants. All the prominent edifices remain standing. But the desolation is in the cabins of the poor. Thousands are houseless. The roofs of their dwellings being blown off in the first heavy gust, the rain afterwards deluged and spoiled everything in the shape of furniture, wearing apparel, bedding, etc., so that large numbers have saved nothing but the clothes they stood in. Some of these poor people owned a "burrow" or donkey—their only treasure—with which they did a kind of slow express business about town; others kept a few hens or a few goats, or a cow. A great part of these domestic animals were killed during the gale.

The roads to the interior are in bad condition, being choked with fallen trees. It is reported that many natives, with their families, were drowned in attempting to cross the suddenly swollen rivers to their homes. The Niqua river rose to an unexampled hight, and swept off a large quantity of copper ore belonging to the Santo Domingo Copper Company of New York. The camels employed by this company in transporting ore to the seacoast, I understand, were not injured, as they lay flat, with their long necks extended on the ground before them, according to their custom in the desert.

There will be great suffering among the lower classes for some time to come, for, unlike the other West India Islands, we have no mother country to appeal to for relief. The government has appropriated $25,000 for the sufferers, but this is but a drop, and government and people are now poor alike.—Correspondence N. Y. Post.

ON Sunday, November 24, All Saints Church, Lambeth, was the scene of a great uproar. Immediately after the procession of clergy and choristers entered a large number of those present hissed and hooted them, and during the lessons for the day the same noise, accompanied with groans, took place; but when the man appeared with a long taper to light the candles of the altar, the uproar became general, and their were cries of "No popery in our English churches." Mr. Machonochie commenced his sermon in the midst of a storm of hisses, and evidently with great nervousness, occupying only six minutes in the delivery. When the Eucharistic sermon commenced the riot became general, and three cheers were proposed, and responded to by a portion of the audience. A rush was then made to the altar, and one of the crosses broken and kicked about the aisle. The beautiful font within the communion rails was thrown down and broken, the water running down the steps. A general fight then ensued with those who desired to protect the church from injury. Soon after the people retired, shouting, "Down with ritualism!" "Shame, shame!" "God eaters!" "Traitors!" etc.

IN Belgium, twenty six miles from Antwerp, the town of Gheel has been for canturies the receptacle of idiots and lunatics from the neighboring towns and cities. These unfortunates have been taken into the families of the farmers and furnished with employment. In this way tens of thousands of these classes whom we confine have been taken care of by the peasantry, whose success ful treatment of them has been remarkable.

LEGISLATIVE.

SENATE—FRIDAY.

A bill incorporating the Memphis Abstract Company, for the purpose of making a perfect record of the titles to all real estate in Shelby county, showing the direct line of title to the same, commencing with the original owner. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The joint committee to whom was referred the investigation of the charges of J. S. Hull, Warden of the Penitentiary, reported that the evidence does not sustain the charges made against him, and recommend the acceptance of his resignation. Accepted and sent to the House.

The bill known as the common carrier bill being the special order of the day, the bill in lieu, offered by Senator Wiesner, requiring railroads to set apart separate cars, or parts of cars, for both white and black persons, was amended by Senator Garner, making it applicable to steamboats.

Senator Aldridge then offered the following amendment:

Provided, That no common carrier shall make any discrimination between citizens accompanied by ladies.

Mr. Aldridge remarked that it might be said that the Northern States had never recognized this distinction. He had traveled over several of those States, and the distinction was recognized there just as it is here. If we do not protect the women of our country, who can we rely on to do it? I am one of those who believe a white man is as good as a negro if he will only behave himself. I may be called a weak-kneed Unionist, but I contend that I am a loyal and true Tennesseean, and believe that loyalty is not confined only to those who can talk of "pailing the kew (cow) in a koffy pot."

The vote was taken and the amendment lost.

The amendment of Senator Wisener was then laid on the table.

The vote was then taken to lay the original bill on the table and was lost.

Senator Lyle offered the following amendment, which was ruled out of order:

Be it further enacted, That should this bill pass, it should be considered as having no effect, and only as impossible on the statute books of Tennessee; and that this act shall not be so construed as to prevent any person from using his own discretion in the selection of his company when deriving benefits from the common carriers of this State.

A motion was then made to lay all the amendments to the original bill on the table, and was carried, and after much legislative engineering, the question was then put on the passage of the original bill, which was carried by the following vote:

Ayes—Messrs. Cary, Eaton, Elliott, Frierson, Garner, Keith, Mathews, Norman, Patterson, Parker, Rodgers, Smith, Underwood, Wyatt and Wilson—16.

Noes—Messrs. Aldridge, Cate, Echel, Henderson, Lyle, McCall, Wisener, and Mr. Speaker Senter—8.

Adjourned until 9 a.m. Saturday.

HOUSE—NEW BILLS.

By Mr. Ryder—A bill to amend the charter of the Memphis Gayoso Gas Company. Referred to the Committee on Incorporations.

By Mr. Ryder—A bill to amend the charter of the Tennessee State Mutual Life Insurance Company. Referred to the Committee on Corporations.

By Mr. Ryder—A bill to incorporate the Hibernian Insurance Company of the city of Memphis. Referred to the Committee on Incorporations.

By Mr. Ryder—A bill to provide for the sale of land for taxes, and for other purposes. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

By Mr. Hamilton—A bill to incorporate the Wardens and Vestrymen of Grace Church, in the city of Memphis. Referred to the Committee on Incorporations.

By Mr. Ryder—A bill to amend an act to create an additional number of justices of the peace and notaries public for the city of Memphis, so as to require all appeals from the judgment of any justice of the peace within the 5th, 13th and 14th Civil Districts of the county of Shelby, to be taken to the municipal court of Memphis. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

ON THIRD READING.

Senate bill No. 16—To reduce the military expenses of the State, came up as the special order of the day and was passed by a vote of 48 to 18.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Mr. Ryder offered an amendment, incorporating the Memphis and St. Louis Transportation Company. Adopted.

Mr. Hamilton offered an amendment to the amendment, providing that said company shall at all times carry freights for the citizens of Memphis at the same price as those for the railroad.

He stated that it had been the practice of railroads leading to Memphis and of the packet line between Memphis and St. Louis, to discriminate against those who built them up. Freights from St. Louis and Louisville had often accumulated faster than it could be transported by the packet line complained of, and in such cases there had been discrimination against the merchants of Memphis and in the favor of railroads, in the shipment of freight. He had frequently known men who desired to buy goods in Memphis, but who said that in order to get their goods over the road, they were compelled to buy in St. Louis or Cincinnati. He was opposed to taxing the citizens of Tennessee to support corporations which discriminated against them. He contended that if any discrimination were necessary, it should be in favor of the tax-payers of Memphis and Tennessee, who contribute to the support of these companies.

Mr. Speaker Richards called Mr. Roach to the Chair, and addressed the House in opposition to the amendment. He stated that the Memphis and St. Louis Packet Company had been given a monopoly, and the amendment already adopted granted a charter to a new company which it was proposed to organize to bring about competition and destroy the monopoly. The charter asked for was perfectly well guarded, and could be objected to by no one. The restriction proposed by the last amendment would give an unfair advantage to the present monopoly. Let the new company have a fair chances and competition would bring reduced freights to the citizens of Memphis. He moved to lay the amendment on the table. Lost.

The amendment was adopted and the bill passed.

Senate bill No. 84—Requiring receivers of railroads to render a monthly statement of receipts and disbursements to be filed with the Comptroller before the 20th of each month; also, to file a bond of $50,000 for the faithful discharge of their duties; also authorizing the Governor to remove any receiver when, in his opinion, the interest of the State requires it. Passed.

Adjourned to 9 a.m. Saturday.

"Mark Twain" On a Turkish Lunch.

I never want another one. The cooking apparatus was in the little booth from near the bazaar, and it was all open to the street. The cook was dirty, and so was the table, and it had no cloth on it. The fellow took a mass of sausage meat, coated it round a wire, and laid it on a charcoal fire to cook. When it was done he laid it aside, and a dog walked in and nipped it. He smelled it first, and probably recognized the remains of a friend. The cook took it away from him, and laid it before us. Brown said, "I pass"—he plays euchre sometimes—and we all passed in turn. Then the cook baked a broad, flat, wheaten cake, greased it well with the sausage, and started to bring it to us. It dropped in the dirt, and he picked it up and polished it on the seat of his breeches, and laid it before us. Brown said, "I pass." We all passed and called a new deal. He put some eggs in a frying pan, and stood pensively prying slabs of meat from between his teeth with a fork. Then he used the fork to turn the eggs with—and brought them along. Brown said, "I pass." All followed suit. We had not know what to do, and so we orderd a new ration of sausage. The cook got out his wire, apportioned a proper amount of sausage meat, spit on his hands and fell to work! This time, with one accord, we all passed out! We paid dearly for this. It all I formed about Turkish lunches. A Turkish lunch is good, no doubt, but it has its weak points.—Cor. Alta Californian.

LIEUT. COL. WEYDE, a Russian officer, has invented an apparatus for throwing light on obstacles under water. It is not expensive and experiments made with it by the Russian and Prussian Governments in the sea, near Cronstadt, and in the river Spree, have produced very satisfactory results. A very important use of this invention is that it enables the officer of a ship of war to discover submarine mines or torpedoes sunk under it by the enemy. It must, of course, also facilitate the recovery of sunken ships and other objects at the bottom of the sea.

AN Englishman and a Yankee were disputing, when the former sueeringly remarked:

"Fortunately the Americans could go no further than the Pacific shore."

The Yankee scratched his prolific brain for an instant and thus replied:

"Why, good gracious! they are already leveling the Rocky Mountains and carting the dirt out West. I had a letter last week from my cousin, who is living two hunderd miles West of the Pacific shore on made land!"

HENRY WARD BEECHER says, apropos of a trip to Canada, and a transfer from one steamer to another: "A man can dress in less time than anything but a fish, but a woman is like a rose bush in a thicket. She stands in a little wilderness of clothes."

CONDITION OF THE SOUTH.

The present condition of these Southern States is such as to command the most serious consideration that can be given to any question which interests humanity. The sudden and violent deprivation of white men of their political rights has thrown all power into the hands of a few of the worst adventurers and most unscrupulous scoundrels who ever infested any land under the sun. These fellows, through the Loyal Leagues, the Freedmen's Bureau, and other similar agencies, have so drilled the black population of the South, as not only to render them perfectly worthless as laborers, but to make them an incubus, and necessitate that they shall become depredators upon property in order to subsist. The condition of the freedmen has, therefore, become something more and greater than a mere political question. It has assumed the proportions and magnitude of a social and domestic question, of the highest moment. The future welfare, progress and prosperity of all the inhabitants of the South are intimately interwoven with the solution of the problems which are now pressing upon every inhabitant of our country with the exigency of fate itself. The improvident freedmen are without food. The farmers are no longer able to employ them. These are the two great facts that confront us. Are they to be allowed to starve? On the other hand, to prevent such a catastophre, are the white citizens to be robbed of all they possess, in order to save them from starvation?

That we do not state the case too strongly, we refer to the following memorial, which is circulating in the State of Louisiana, and which generally states the condition of affairs throughout the South:

Memorial to His Excellency the President, and to the Honorable Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States:

The undersigned citizens of the State of Louisiana, respectfully represent that the political developments of the past few months have demonstrated the fact that the Reconstruction acts of Congress will, if persisted in, produce a conflict of races, which must result in the desolation of the country, and the serious, if not irreparable, injury of both races in the Southern States.

That through the stringent interpretation of the disfranchising clause of the Reconstruction acts, so large a number of the white citizens have been excluded from registration that the white voters are reduced to nearly one-half the number of the colored, though the census exhibits an excess of white population;

That vast frauds and irregularities have been committed in the registration, which are sufficiently indicated by the registration of one voter for every three of the negro race—against one for every ten of the white population. That in consequence of these frauds and irregularities in the administration of the Reconstruction acts, the white population are powerless—subject to the domination of the negro race, which, through the influence of indiscreet persons, has been incited to bitter hostility and jealousy towards the white citizens of the State, whose interests require them to maintain relations of kindness and good will to all classes and conditions of persons residing in their midst;

That sound policy, no less than humanity, demands the exercise of the kindest feeling and most liberal disposition of the white to the colored people; and that nothing is further from the purpose or desire of our people than the adoption of laws or measures to oppress the freedmen, or to deprive them of the benefit of just and equal laws for the protection of their persons, their property and their liberty;

That so far from displaying any contumacy, or factious opposition to the Reconstruction acts of Congress, the white citizens of this State have generally endeavored to register, but have been refused, as your memorialists believe, in much greater numbers than was contemplated by Congress;

That the negroes in this State are organized into secret bands, termed Loyal Leagues, sworn and combined against the white citizens of the State, in order to obtain control of the Government;

That this credulous race has been deluded by designing men into the belief that the property of the white citizens will be divided amongst them;

That under these demoralizing influences they are daily refusing to fulfill their contracts, or to labor for the support of themselves and their families;

That in consequence of this demoralization, planting in this State has resulted in the ruinous failure of a large majority of our planters, and, of course, in the necessity of its abandonment;

That before the close of the present year the negroes, with but few exceptions, will have consumed or wasted all their wages, or share of the crops, and be destitute of the means of subsistence; that the white race will be compelled to limit their planting mainly to their own families, and the negroes will not have the means, if they had the capacity, to plant on their own account. Under these circumstances, famine, with all its attendant horrors, must soon come upon this improvident race.

In view of these impending calamities, the undersigned would earnestly appeal to the President and Congress to give prompt attention to this vitally important matter, and provide immediately such remedy as in their wisdom can be devised to arrest the ruin which, unless arrested, must speedily come upon us.

On the outside page of this paper, we also print a memorial addressed to Gen. ORD, commanding the District of Louisiana and Arkansas, setting forth even more imminent calamities than the Louisiana petition.

These memorials set forth stubborn facts. They are not gotten up by partisans for party purposes. They are rather below than in excess of the truth. They are wrung from the inhabitants of the country by the hard necessity of their condition. They are not the work of sensationists or incendiaries. They are intended honestly to apprize the Government of the dangers that lie ahead of us, that are indeed now upon us, and, if possible, thus to avert the catastrophe that must follow, unless they are wisely and judiciously dealt with. What can be done to prevent the evils that stare us directly in the face? It is certain that Radical policy cannot do it. The truth should always be told. We know that we have to appeal to the Radical power to assist in averting the evil. And yet we know that this very power has brought the ruin upon us. The question is, whether there is not a sufficient number of the Radical party, when they witness evils, so stupendous and appalling, about to overtake their own proteges, that will not relent and reverse a policy which leads to such consequences. We wish them to know that the black man and the white man must both suffer incalculable evils from their course. Thousands of negroes must either starve, rob or steal under the present policy. Thousands more must perish for want of subsistence. Anarchy, want and starvation must be the fate of the Southern Provinces, unless immediate relief shall be provided; and the same thing will be repeated every year, unless the tempter shall be removed from among us, in the shape of the adventurers who prey upon the ignorance and credulity of the poor blacks. These poor creatures are not so much to blame for their forlorn condition as the miserable incendiaries and mercenary wretches who have deceived and misled by promising them possessions which they well knew they could never hold or enjoy. A race just raised from slavery, cannot be blamed for listening to the syren voice of the artful and conning flatterer. We have called attention to this subject, in this earnest manner, with the bare hope that wise counsels and judicious action may prevail in the right quarter. Would that we could enforce these serious considerations upon the minds of those who have the power to correct the great evil which overshadows us. Even if our white population could remain intact in such an emergency, it would still be a great calamity to them to have to witness the destruction and suffering of their late faithful slaves. But they cannot so remain. They must suffer too. They must be despoiled of their meagre possessions. They would gladly contribute a share to prevent the ruin. But they feel that they must be inevitably forced into violence to protect themselves from starvation. Such is a truthful picture of the sad condition of the South at the close of the year 1867.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, December 14, 1867.

In the Senate, the House resolution for adjournment from Friday, the 20th inst., to Monday, January 6th, was concurred in.

Mr. Sherman desired to call up the bill for the repeal of the cotton tax, but it was not taken up.

A bill was passed securing to the families of deceased soldiers the bounties to which soldiers (if living) would be entitled.

A long speech from Mr. Corbett, of Oregon, on the finances, and a short executive session finished the day's business.

In the House, Judge Woodward, of Pennsylvania, made his maiden effort, which was listened to with marked attention, especially the legal points, which he presented on the impeachment question. He maintained that the majority report of the Judiciary Committee was right on the legal aspect of the case, and that the President could be impeached for misdemeanors which were not indictable at common law. At the same time he said that he did not believe that the President had done anything to cause his impeachment.

Hon. Thos. Theaker, of Ohio, Commissioner of Patents, has resigned. There are a half dozen candidates for the position.

The House Judiciary Committee has heard three arguments in favor of paying the members of the Fortieth Congress mileage for each of the three sessions. One of these papers was prepared by a member from California. The Committee has as yet prepared no report or taken any formal vote, but the opinion of the members seems to be that the decision will be in favor of paying full mileage but twice, and only for the first session to those who were members of the Thirty-ninth Congress.

A resolution will probably be offered in the House on Monday, demanding a statement in detail of the expenses incurred by special committees during the past year. The aggregate cost of these committees is said to be about six hundred thousand dollars without counting the expenses of the Judiciary Committee in the impeachment investigation.

The members of the Whisky Distiller's Convention called at the White House, but the President being engaged with the Cabinet, did not give the Convention an audience.

Delegates from the various State Union Leagues assembled in council here to-night, and passed a resolution calling on the Republican National Convention to place no man in nomination who was not pledged to the cause of equal rights before the law and of manhood suffrage.

Gen. Geo. H. Meade has arrived here from Philadelphia.

Steamer LeClaire Sunk—River and Weather.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 16.—The steamer LeClaire, from Cincinnati for Nashville, sunk near Brandenburg, Ky., last night. The boat and cargo is a total loss.

The river is rising with four feet two inches in the canal by the mark. The weather is clear with the thermometer at 38°.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

Doings of the Reconstruction Convention.

NEW ORLEANS, December 16.—The Convention occupied almost the whole of to-day's session in discussing the report of the Committee on Printing. During the discussion a resolution was offered to print the proceedings in English and French. The resolution was tabled, although a large portion of their constituents use the French language alone.

CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, December 16.—In the House to-day, Mr. Benjamin offered a resolution reciting that the President in his annual message had seen fit, in utter disregard of the popular will, as expressed in the election of members of the Fortieth Congress, to repeal the Reconstruction laws, the effect of which would be to remit the Government of the late rebellious States into rebel hands and abandon the loyal band there to the will of traitors. Therefore it is eminently proper that the House should respond in emphatic terms to so extraordinary a proposition, and resolving that the House will never consent to take a retrogradestep from its advanced position in promoting equal rights, nor to deviate from its firm purpose of protecting all men as equal before the law. And furthermore that there is no reason to doubt that the rebellious States are being successfully reconstructed on a firm and durable basis, and that no good reason exists why the Reconstruction acts should be repealed.

Mr. Kerr moved to lay the resolution and preamble on the table, which was tabled, yeas 32, nays 112.

The resolution and preamble were then adopted, yeas 111, nays 32. A strictly party vote.

Mr. Dowes introduced a bill to change the time of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Union and Pacific Railroad from the first Wednesday after the 4th of March, and to enable them to fix the place of meeting at Washington, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis or New York, which was passed, and the House went into a Committee of the Whole, and considered the deficiency appropriation bill, which appropriated $188,1582, and after a debate reported it back to the House, which attached to it by a vote of seventy-three to seventy.

An amendment giving twenty per cent. additional to all civil employees in Washington, whose compensation is under $2000. The bill was then tabled by a vote of 73 to 67.

The deficiency bill was again introduced and passed without the additional compensation clause.

The House refused to suspend the rules on the motion of Schenck, in order to discharge the Committee on Banking and Currency from the further consideration of Lynch's bill to prevent expansion and contraction of the currency. Schenck's object was to send it to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Hubberd, from Western Virginia, asked leave to offer a resolution that the Committee on Retrenchment consider the expediency of reducing the pay of members of Congress to $4000 and ten cents mileage, but Higbee objected, and the House adjourned.

The proceedings in the Senate to-day were unimportant.

FOR SALE.

HAVING resolved to abandon farming, I will, at the Courthouse door, in the town of Covington, Tipton county, Tenn., on the

First Day of January, 1868,

(New Year's day), sell to the highest bidder, my Plantation, lying three and a half miles from Covington, containing 1362 acres. Said land has been divided in lots to suit purchasers, from 50 to 200 acres, each lot or tract of land having comfortable Houses and cleared land on the same. This is one of the finest tracts of land in West Tennessee, and is an excellent opportunity for the people of the country of small means to buy them a good home, as my terms are very easy. The above land will be sold for one-third cash, the balance on a credit of one and two years, with a lien retained on the land for the balance of the purchase money.

Any one purchasing any of said lands can be supplied with corn and fodder, on the premises, at the market price of the country. John T. Douglas, Esq., is my agent, who will take pleasure in showing the land to any one wishing to purchase.

A plat of the land can be seen at the office of Peyton J. Smith, Esq. Mr. John Walker or U. P. Yarbro, living near the lands, will also show the land to any one desiring to purchase

THE IMPENDING CRASH!

TO THE

CITIZENS OF MEMPHIS.

THAT THE money market is stringent, and nothing to warrant the hope that the near future may bring forth a better state of things, is but too strongly evidenced by the many and large failures, not alone in Memphis, but all over the country.

In view of those stern facts we have, after two week's diligent attention, succeeded in going through our immense stock from 1st to 468 floor, and marking down the same to prices that ill repay our labor.

As an enumeration of our IMMENSE AND WELL SELECTED STOCK would occupy too much time and space, we small confine ourselves to a mention of the leading departments in our house, hoping thereby to attract the desired notice without resorting to the pettifogging system of enumerating "each penny" prices in connection with certain articles of out little or no value at best.

Our house being one of the oldest—if not the Oldest Dry Goods Establishment in Memphis,

and, we presume, in point of reliability and the means to sustain any losses the times may inflict, second to none in the city, we trust any announcement emanating from us may be received in that true and genuine light it is intended.

We have never carried on our business on the strength of newspaper "puffs" and placards, nor do we intend to do it now; but Dry Goods being about to resume their old standard value, we think it but due to our many kind old patrons to make them aware of the great and sudden decline in our prices.

The departments will be comprised in the following, viz:

CLOAK AND SHAWL ROOM,

An elegant assortment of

BLACK VELVET DE LYON SACQUES,
BLACK AND COLORED do. do.,
BLACK CLOTH do. do.,
CHINCHILLA, do.

A large and well assorted stock of

WOOL SHAWLS,
HOODS, NUBIAS,
BREAKFAST CAPES, ETC., ETC.

FURS, FURS, FURS.

An extensive variety of FURS at very attractive prices.

SILK DEPARTMENT.

A newly selected stock of SILKS—some nice evening shades.

Our Line of Black Silks Defies Competition,

as regards quality and price.

DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT,

Embraces

IRISH POPLINS in all shades and colors,
FRENCH MERINOES, REGISTER,
LYONNAISE and VELVET POPLINS.

Also, a large stock of

MERINOS,
EMPRESS CLOTH,
BLACK AND GOLD—in endless variety,
BOMBAZINES,
WOOL PLAIDS, ETC., ETC.

Some beautiful new goods for Walking and Dressing Suits.

HOSIERY & GLOVE DEPARTMENT.

A full and beautifully selected stock of LADIES' AND MISSES' HOSIERY, ALEXANDRE'S GLOVES.

A full line of Ladies', Gents', Youths' and Misses' Underwear.

Linen and Housekeeping Department.

We have the most complete stock, Irish Linens from the best recognized manufacturers. Table Damasks—single and double, Napkins and Doyilles, Towels and Towelling, Crash, etc., etc.

The most complete stock of Blankets and Flannels we have ever had. Counterpanes and Quilts—a large stock.

CLOTH DEPARTMENT.

A magnificent stock of Black Cloths—French, Italian and German—Tweeds for Boys' Suits, Scotch and West of England Tweeds, Cloakings—extremely pretty.

Boot and Shoe Department.

A complete stock of Miles Boots and Shoes.

TO PLANTERS.

Our stock of Planters' Goods is too well known to need any remarks other than call attention to it.

It is replete with Boots, Shoes and Brogans, Hats, Clothing in endless variety, and of best material.

PLAIN AND PLAID LINSEY.

Kerseys and Jeans, Osnaburgs and Stripes.

In fact everything that is needed by the Planter in the shape of Dry Goods, and at figures that will insure his satisfaction.

In addition to the above many inducements, we have for Salesmen young men who, for attention and politeness, and knowledge of their business, cannot be excelled, if equalled, in this city.

As we are not "closing out" nor running away from the city, we don't desire to make any statements that will meet refutation; therefore give us a call, and thereby satisfy yourselves and gratify us.

WANTED—THE PATENT

AURORA OIL.

We want men every where to study their own INTEREST. The right to manufacture and sell the Patent Aurora Oil in a single county will make more money to the purchaser in three months than the largest farm in your State will make in a whole year. The Aurora Oil actually costs less than one-half the price of Coal Oil, and the illuminating power of the Aurora Oil is as much superior to the Coal Oil as the Coal Oil is to a tallow candle, and is no more explosive than a tallow candle. Any Lamp that will burn Coal Oil will burn the Aurora Oil. It does not smoke the chimney it does not smell—it will not grease or stain the finest linen—not even white cloth. The material for the manufacture is inexhaustible. One man can make seventy-five barrels per day. No machinery required. We will pay your fare to and from the city of Memphis and bills while here, if we cannot prove all, and even more, than we have stated. A single county is a small fortune to the man of enterprise, and the right to a State is untold worth.

BUSINESS.—We request that our advertising patrons hand in their favors at the Counting Room by six o'clock p.m., to insure insertion next day. Obituary and death notices will be received at the Composition Room up to eleven o'clock. .

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Hereafter individual bills of any employee or proprietor of this paper will not be allowed as an offset against accounts for advertising. All bills against the APPEAL will be paid on presentation, and no bill will be allowed unless contracted by me or by my authority. JOHN AINSLIE,
Cashier and Business Manager.

A COW STEALER CAUGHT.—A cow thief has been caught at last, in the person of one Alex. Pool (colored). The facts of the case will be ventilated before Mr. Justice Walton to morrow.

A REBUKE.—Judge Waldron administered a severe rebuke in the Municipal Court yesterday, to Mr. Hitzfield, an attorney, for putting his name to cases with which he had no connection.

BANKING.—The attention of our readers is called to the card of Messrs. Campbell & Miller, bankers of New York city, which will be found in our columns to-day. Want of space prevents a more extended notice which will appear to-morrow.

STATEROOM ROBBERY.—The stateroom of Mr. R. Collins, on the steamer Great Republic, was entered Sunday morning, when a meerschaum pipe, a brown morocco satchel and ten handkerchiefs were stolen. The goods were valued at $40. No trace of the goods or thief as far as heard from.

COMMON CARRIERS.—Mr. Geo. Moore, formerly of the metropolitan police, who is now a conductor on the City Railroad, ejected a negro named Bob Church from his car, for which he was arrested by officer Selkirk, and had to put up a forfeit of $25. The case will come up at the second district station to-day at four o'clock.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL.—As will be seen, this eligible and fine hotel is for rent. Those who wish to rent could not select a more convenient located hotel—being on the corner of Front row and Jefferson street, on one of the greatest thoroughfares in the city, and fronting the landing of all the regular packet lines.

A COAT THIEF.—Overcoats are now, owing to cold winds, becoming an absolute necessity. A Beechville, named Tom Dobbins, was arrested Saturday on a warrant issued by Justice Miller for stealing an overcoat from John Shaw, up in Pinch. Officer Chamberlain, of the Metropolitan Police, made the arrest. Tom will have a hearing to day.

ARKANSIANS.—Quite a number of representatives from this great and glorious territory are in town. Among them we find Mr. B. B. Turner, Mat. McGeery, Al. Dupin, and last, though not least, Dr. Guy R. Smith—all these hail from Searcy. From Duvall's Bluff, we find Capt. Bancroft—the gay and festive Bancroft. From the load of "truck" brought on the Commercial, we judged a number of Arkansians had landed here.

HANDED OVER.—John Grant, arrested some time since on a charge of forgery and perjury, was, by the civil authorities yesterday, handed over to the officer commanding the post, as a deserter. The particulars of this forger, deserter and perjurer, formerly connected with the Freedman's Bureau, have already been published in full. In addition to other crimes he wrote his own discharge from the service. He is skillful with the pen, and doubtless thought it mightier than the sword. He was after money, not fame.

A MACKEREL IN LUCK AND A COTTON BROKER UNHAPPY.—Saturday afternoon when the bookkeeper of Messrs. Clark & Smith, cotton brokers, 264 Front street, up stairs, had gone out for five minutes, he returned to fine two hundred and twenty-one dollars abstracted by an adroit thief. The bookkeeper happened to leave the safe open, paper imagining it possible that such a depredation would be committed in so short a time. There is very little chance for the conviction of the thief, since the description of only two or three of the stolen bills is remembered. Very probably a mackerel fished up this prize.

THE LECTURE TO NIGHT.—We feel it is only necessary to remind them of the lecture to be delivered at the Greenlaw Opera House to-night by Capt. Jno. R. Flippin, for the benefit of the widows and orphans of Confederate soldiers The captain has chosen for his subject, "Men, Women and Things," one that will give him full scope for his well known talents. Let the house be filled. Admission only fifty cents. The widows and orphans of the fallen braves need fuel, provision and clothing, now that the cold weather has set in. Do not let it be said that our people will see the hungry go without bread.

PERSONAL.—Col. Jacob Frolich, Jr., editor and proprietor of the State County Record, Arkansas, favored us with a call this with his pleasant smile yesterday. He will remain in town to-day. To-morrow he goes to Bolivar to see that one of his friends is bound tightly by the Gordian knot. We hope ere long to drink a bridal cup, not that the Colonel has himself entered into the bonds matrimonial.

Tom. W. Neal, editor and proprietor of Neal's Sale Gazette, published at Dyersburg, Tenn., is also in the city on business connected with his paper. His paper is one of the best advertising mediums in that section. He is putting up at the Overton.

A MAD SHOT.—A couple of gentlemen who have been boarding on a flatboat ten or twelve miles above the city, on the Hagan place, had a quarrel about two demireps living with them, when one of them threatened the life of the other. Saturday last both left the boat, and as neither returned that night it was apprehended that a difficulty had taken place between them. Early Sunday morning the body of the threatened man was discovered about a mile from the flatboat on one of the roads leading out into the country. His body was perforated with buckshot, and as the other individual was seen with a shot gun, there can be no doubt that he was the murderer.

THE FINLEY CHURN DASHER.—Whoever says that this is not an age of improvement, even in matters pertaining to the farm, cannot have seen the wonderful "Finley Churn Dasher," of which so many thousands have been sold during the past few weeks. It is a most wonderful invention, and performs its work almost by magic, as we have been informed by some of our most reliable citizens who have been using it. They say the ladies could not be induced to part with it on any consideration. The fact that no State or county rights can be purchased, shows the confidence that Messrs. Cameron & Co., No. 321 Main street, have in its efficiency. See their column advertisement on our second page.

MURDER IN CHATTANOOGA—A MAN SHOOTS HIS WIFE.—A frightful affair took place at Chattanooga on Saturday. A man named William Rodgers, who, it appears, for some time past had labored under the impression that his wife had not been pursuing a proper course for a married lady, went home and demanded that she acknowledge her fault. She refused to do it, but protested her innocence in the most positive terms, when he drew a pistol and fired two shots, the first taking effect in the abdomen and the second in the left leg. The victim lived but a few hours, during which she suffered the most excruciating pain. Rodgers was arrested and lodged in jail. Further particulars will be doubtless received to-morrow. Our informant describes it as one of the most cold-blooded affairs that has ever occurred in Chattanooga.

A WOULD-BE MURDERER.

A Negro Shoots a Young Gentleman on the Pigeon Roost Road Saturday Night.

He is Dangerously Wounded.

A number of negroes living in the vicinity of Memphis seem to be under the impression that they are at liberty to shoot down whom they please in the public highway, either for gain or vengeance. One of the most atrocious affairs which has happened for some time occurred on Saturday night, shortly after dusk, on the Pigeon Roost road, about one and a half miles from the city. From all that can be gathered in reference to the matter, we learn that Mr. I. M. Harriss, son of the late Judge Harriss, invited Mr. Walker Edmonds, who is the nephew of the senior member of the firm, to come out and spend the Sabbath at his residence on Central avenue, near the Pigeon Roost road. Mr. Edmonds accepted, and about nightfall started, riding a horse which his friend had left for him. He proceeded on his way leisurely, and when about a mile and a half from the city, he saw two men coming up the road. On coming nearer he discovered that they were negroes, armed with guns. Mr. Edmonds held up and leaned forward, as if to ask them their business, when one of the fiends raised his gun, aimed at the head of the rider and fired. The ball entered the forehead of Mr. Edmonds just over the left eye, inflicting a serious wound, which his friends fear will cause his death. The assassins fled, not a word having been spoken. When the wounded man returned to consciousness he was still on his horse, which had stopped near the residence of A. A. Barnes, Esq., attorney at law. He, by as great exertion as his feeble strength would permit, called for assistance, which was quickly rendered by Mr. Barnes and his family, who brought him in the house. During the night, however, he was conveyed to the residence of Mrs. Harriss, where of course every possible attention is being paid to his case. He, however, lay in a critical condition at a late hour last night. Information was given to the police, and Detective Selkirk set at work. As the negro is well known this is very hope that he will speedily be brought to justice. There are various stories afloat, but we are inclined to believe that Mr. Edmonds was mistaken for another party with whom the negro lately had a quarrel.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—The Hamlet of Mr. Frank Mayo drew an excellent audience last evening, and to judge from the repeated applause, the large majority were well pleased. There was some new business, but not material innovation. As a whole, it was clever rather than great, and in this point it was impressive and striking. Mr. Mayo has a fine appearance, and is graceful in person and action. The "Horatio" of Mr. Waldron was in excellent taste and judgment. To return to "Hamlet." We decidedly object to the monotone in which the soliloquy was delivered. We liked it less than any part of the performance. It seemed the repetition of Ophella's orisons. We would have him reform it altogether. This evening will be presented the beautiful play of The Marble Heart, with Mr. Mayo as "Pygmalion." We shall anticipate a most pleasing and finished piece of acting. At the fall of the curtain on Hamlet, Mr. Mayo being called on for a speech, said he was an indifferent speech-maker, but expressed the only sentiments that suited for the kind reception he had met with, and hoped that nothing would occur during his stay to diminish the approbation expressed.

TEMPERANCE FAIR.—The Sons of Temperance fair, under the auspices of the various divisions of the city, was inaugurated at the Greenlaw Club rooms last night, under very favorable circumstances. The hall was beautifully decorated with evergreens, etc, and the tables adorned with all the nice things one could think of. The fair attendants prosecuted the task given them to do in the most gracious manner. The attendance was large, and if we are not very much mistaken the fair will prove a success. We regret that we cannot give a more extended notice, but will endeavor to do better as the fair progresses.

IRISH LITERARY ASSOCIATION.—We are advised that the usual weekly meeting of the above society will be held this evening at 8½ o'clock, in the hall of the Irish Societies of Memphis, corner of Main and Adams. Subject for debate: "Is the emancipation of the negro beneficial to the people of the United States?" All young men are invited to be present.

THE MAYORALTY.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

Gents,—Are we to have a conservative Mayor of the city next year? or is the government to pass without an effort into the hands of the negroes? Every one knows that Mayor Lofland's administration is a total failure. No one entertains the least idea of his re-election. That in fact his prospects for that are as hopeless as his incapacity is manifest. Why not then set a man before the voters who can be elected and whose election would at once give assurance of a skillful and vigorous administration of our city affairs? Such a man is found in the person of Alderman Passmore. A man every way fitted for the station and whose industry and skill would be worth a great deal to us just now. I now call upon Mr. P. to announce himself at once, with entire confidence in his success.
CITIZEN.

We publish the above, coming as it does, from one of our most esteemed friends and citizens. However, we know that Alderman Passmore has steadily refused to become a candidate for the Mayoralty.—EDS.

MEMPHIS AND LOUISVILLE RAILROAD. In the Sunday morning papers, simultaneously appeared a card, purporting to emanate from three travelers, Messrs. "J. T. Hurt, Richmond, Va., Q. Eoggand, Brownsville, Tenn., and R. A. Brown, Wytheville, Va.," complaining that they had "been dreadfully deceived by the ticket agent of the Memphis and Louisville Railroad, 287½ Main street, Memphis, Tennessee," and they "deem it a duty we (they) owe the traveling public to notify them, to keep them from being swindled as we (they) were. We (they) wanted to come the best and quickest route to Chattanooga, and he told us (them) that it was much nearer and cheaper via McKenzie and Nashville, and sixty miles nearer."

That this is pure invention, and is utterly destitute of truth, the application of a few facts will fully demonstrate. It savors more of a weak and puerile emanation from a competing office, than of a dignified and candid travelers who had been deceived. In the first place, there has been but one ticket for Chattanooga sold from the office No. 287½ Main street (which was sold in the early part of September last), and none at the depot at the head of Main street, over which we have no charge. We therefore unequivocally deny that any such persons as Messrs. Hurt, England and Brown ever bought tickets from our offices here for Chattanooga, and are confident the gard is bogus—"a weak invention of the enemy."

We have never, in any instance, informed inquirers that our route was cheaper than any other, but have invariably said, "the same as by any other route!"

We have never deceived any one purchasing a ticket from our office knowingly, or where it was in our power to furnish the required information. We have never suggested or said that our route, even by McKenzie and Nashville, was sixty miles shorter to Chattanooga than any other.

The geographical advantages of our line and connections, and their excellent and unsurpassed speed render it entirely unnecessary to deceive the public, or publish false and vamped up complaints of travelers on competing routes, to obtain an increase of travel, or business of any kind.

We have not only endeavored to give correct information relative to our own line and connections, but to the best of our ability and knowledge, furnished correct information when asked, relative to competing lines, and have never, in any instances, sought to obtain advantages for our road which were not entirely and conclusively warranted by the facts. The fabrication, doubtless paid for by a competing line, has not the shadow of a basis to stand upon, and we are confident when the facts here set forth are scanned by the public, its being flourished in the papers will Hurt Brown and England—imaginary personages though they be—more than it possibly can a route so well established and so liberally and attentively managed as the Memphis and Louisville railroad.

FIRES.—On Saturday night the building of Mr. R. R. Durant, on the Pigeon Roost road, occupied as a grocery store, was destroyed by fire. The stock was almost a total loss. The whole was valued at $3000, and insured for about $1800.

Between 11 and 12 o'clock Sunday night the house of Mrs. Gainer, on the south side of Bayou street, near DeSoto, was discovered by some colored people to be on fire. They ran to the spot and succeeded in extinguishing the fire before any considerable damage was done. No general alarm was given, and the engines consequently did not turn out.

About 1 o'clock Sunday night a light was perceived in the southwestern part of the city, and the bells rang out an alarm. The engines turned out and went as far as South street, when it was observed that the fire was in the direction of the Hernando road, and had exhausted itself in the destruction of a small wooden building. The engines returned without going to the locality of the fire.

THE MAYORALTY.

My first communication, Messrs. Editors, seems to have acted on the Bulletin like a coal of fire on the back of a terrapin. It has in a measure put out its head, or rather shown its hand—that is, it is opposed to the re-election of Mr. Lofland not on "personal, but political, municipal and financial" grounds. Let us see. The Bulletin says:

"It (the Bulletin) had witnessed some eighteen months (the Mayor has been in office less than fourteen) of his official conduct, and it was satisfied that there was nothing in him, except extravagant pretensions and great paucity of performance."

Will any sensible man say that this is not personal? What could be more so, unless to impeach his moral character, or standing as a citizen? In the next sentence, the Bulletin continues:

"It (the Bulletin) has declared its conviction that he cannot be re-elected, because his official course has been so fruitless of good results that it is impossible to rally all the white men of the city to his support."

To show what impudence it is for the Bulletin to speak for "the white men of Memphis," we will quote a brief remark or two from the Avalanche of last December, which held it up to the scorn and contempt of the white citizens of Memphis. The Avalanche was contrasting the eloquent and patriotic language of Gen. Preston, and "the defamation with which the Memphis Daily Bulletin visits them"—"our Southern ex-soldiers."

"The Bulletin calls them 'dupes;' and yet this print professes to give expression to Southern sentiment. Bah! An extreme Radical of Massachusetts would say no more. Gen. Preston calls our struggle 'a noble but unfortunate cause.' The Bulletin speaks of it as 'follies and crimes.'"

And again, in the same scathing article, the Avalanche of the 21st of December, 1866, said:

"The Bulletin speaks of our best citizens, in 1861, when in actual war, as 'a maddened mob, driven by passion, incapable of reflection;' committing 'follies, the memory of which now makes men blush.' We can imagine no one 'blushing' for the part he played in the late unfortunate war, save the moral coward who thought Providence was on the side of the South, which was then his side, and who has been treacherously abusing his former associates as 'dupes,' and his former leaders as 'fools and criminals,' since he discovered Providence did not take sides with us. Such a man might well 'blush' when he looks a Southern soldier in the face."

This is enough for our purpose. A year ago the Bulletin was under precisely the same editorial auspices it is now. The individual was not then Deputy United States Marshal, but was an aspirant for any fat office, and swayed the editorials of the Bulletin as he does now, when through personal motives he seeks to punish Mayor Lofland by traduction and detraction for the part he took in frustrating the conspiracy of Tomeny, Bingham & Co. to get control of the Memphis and Ohio Railroad. They impressed time, Mayor Lofland was "a marvelous proper man!"

All the pretentious concern manifested by the Bulletin for a triumph for the white men of Memphis, over both the Radical negro candidates, is mere moonshine—the sheerest bosh. It was not reported before the late Radical nomination, that the Bulletin was secretly enlisted for Dr. Shaw, and in the event of his success, was to have the perquisites now enjoyed by the Post, and still retain what it already had in Mr. Hall, as understood that Dr. Shaw transfers his influence to Mr. Fitch, and that may be the reason the Bulletin evinces such manifest and determined hostility to Mayor Lofland, the only opposing candidate in the field who has any chance of success, and who has brought into the field with any probability of success, or who has positive strength enough to form the nucleus of successful opposition.

The amiability of the Bulletin is sublime—its truthfulness wonderful. "It has not descended to particulars, not because there were not a multitude of facts alleged, but purely out of regard for Mr. Lofland's feelings." Does anybody who knows J. B. Bingham believe this? We will be qualified, not one. There were two obvious reasons why this disinterested patriot has made no direct charge, and prefers to rely upon an exaggerated insinuation: one is because the falsity of the accusation, distinctly made, could be demonstrated without the slightest difficulty, and the other is that Bingham is notoriously careful of his person.

In reference to the writer of these articles, the Bulletin is widely mistaken if it supposes he is not fools and criminals,' by any attempts to jostle itself behind the subterfuge that "he has no vote." The fact is otherwise and will be demonstrated at the election, but we are not now engaged in self-defense, or dealing in personalities with Bingham. We are performing a duty to the public and exposing the rascality of as arch an intriguer and unprincipled a pretender as ever played the incendiary under a specious exterior.

In this we shall refer to some of the many recommendations of Mayor Lofland for the benefit of the city, and perhaps explain the reasons why the measures recommended were not perfected. CIVES.

A HAPPY MARRIAGE.—By reference to our marriage column it will be seen that Mr. Chas. E. Wells and Mrs. Josephine E. Suber have been united in the holy bonds. We had expected an invitation sure to the house of our friend H. W. Tomlinson on such a festive occasion, but it was not anticipated that the ceremony would take place without timely warning. The happy pair concluded that the nuptial knot might as well be tied at once, and relieve the anxiety of those who might still be under the delusions inspired by the syren Hope, and accordingly the time appointed was abbreviated as Julia informs us she yielded to the importunities of Sir Thomas, and shortened months into weeks, and in this instance made a very long one into one down to the day. Well, a good thing cannot come too soon, and we congratulate our friends on their readiness to embark upon the New Year in their own beautiful barque, with Hymen at the helm, and the Christmas holidays for part of their honeymoon.

May bliss supreme reign o'er the r common lot
Their home alone contentment's favorite spot;
No clouds above their canopy arise,
And bright the zenith of their azure skies.
Sun e be with them sweet as water bells,
And ever-welling good be all their wells.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Editors Appeal: I was very much amused a few days ago at one of the colored sovereigns of the city. He was asked by a gentleman who he intended voting for. "For Beecher," he replied. When asked his reason for voting for Beecher, he said, that "after Beecher was elected Gayer he would do away with shinplasters, and the darkies would be paid in specie for their work." He "knew this would be the case, and, therefore, we's going to elect him." Is not this an actual pledge of the Beecherites to carry the negro vote?

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, December 16, 1867.

There was not much doing in the way of discounting at our banks to-day. Commercial paper is even harder to negotiate than during the summer season. Confidence is, if anything, more shaken than then, and only gilt edged paper is touched. Offerings of cotton bills were light comparatively, though the demand for Exchange is active, especially among our merchants, who, unable to purchase and ship gold, are compelled to resort to our banks. The buying rate is the same as last week—½c discount on New York and ¼c on other points.

Gold opened in New York at 134 and closed at 134½. Dealers buy at 132@133c.

City Scrip is steady with fair amounts offered. The buying rate remains at 35c. Selling at 36@37c.

County Warrants are rather dull, though brokers have not reduced their buying rates. Small warrants are taken at 66@66c, and large ones, which are considered unavailable, at 65c. Selling at 68@70c.

Police Scrip is bought at 82c and sold at 86@90c.

The capital employed in the dry goods trade in New York is estimated at $100,000,000.

George L. Schuyler, of New York, has been granted a release, under the bankrupt law, from debts amounting to over three millions.

A special says Secretary McCulloch reports that the expenditures for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1868, will amount to $372,000,000, of which the interest on the public debt will amount to $129,676,078.

The secretary of the Treasury issued a circular to collector of customs on the Northern frontiers instructing them that cattle or other animals exported into Canada can only be reimported free of duty to the United States in the same condition as when exported. When their condition is changed by fattening or otherwise, the duty will be assessed and collected in the manner prescribed for in the original importations.

The following are the excise and tariff rates, which go into operation for the entire dominion of Canada: On spirits, including brandy, gin, rum, whisky, etc., 80c per gallon; on tobacco, the specific duty with the addition of 5 per cent. ad valorem; on domestic wines 10 per cent., or 25 per cent. per gallon, according to strength; on tinctures 30c. Duty on green tea unchanged, and on black teas is per cent., and 3½ per cent. per pound.

The cotton seasons of '65-'66, and '66-'67, were unexampled in duliness, fluctuating at the same time in the same direction (though not precisely de in duplicate), but culminating at the highest point, and the middle of May the lowest, each season. From present indications the speculative world are often consequences seem acting in per cet confidence of this season continuing the parallel. We have seen, during the last ten days, cotton on hand in Liverpool selling active at 7¾d, while to arrive, or for future delivery, at the same time, and in the same market, it sold at 7d, or at 1¾ cents in gold less. In New York the same feeling seems to have prevailed. Every one seems imbued with the idea that if they can get out a short (which is a contract for future delivery) before they will be able to buy and deliver before the time arrives at a handsome profit. The reasoning for this is the action of the Government traveling rapidly in the direction of hard money, hard times, and consequent low prices, accompanied by numerous failures throughout the country, rendering us unable to hold anything that will bring money from abroad, the relief in a large crop in the country, and a general excessive production over the consumption, the rescinding of the tax on the crop of '68 stimulating the production for that year. Granting these facts correct, is there no limit? Although they are not correct, already the price is below the cost of production, tax or no tax, and has bankrupted the producers. Even at remunerative prices they have no means to make it, and at present prices, with unlimited means, they would not make it. May not the same condition prevail in other cotton countries? They learned to raise it at a less price than they enterprise survive a decline? This crop is overestimated with the most favorable fall ever known. The receipts to 1st December, 1867, at all our ports, only equaled the receipts to same date last year, although the revenue regulations prevented us coming forward till near the middle of October, 1866. The stock of American cotton in Liverpool is now 700,000 bales, which is over 300,000 bales less than at the same time last year. Of the immense crop of 1865-'66, which was overinsured well overseld to arrive, which must prevent an accumulation of stocks. These short sales of themselves must cause a good demand for cotton, as it must be bought before it can be delivered. Let any interruption to its coming forward occur, if it become evident that there is a short crop and a spinner's and speculative demand raging for the article, and there is no market to cover on. Beside a President has to be elected next year, and it is becoming evident that the popular heart will be in favor of greenbacks, and the only difference in parties will be which will secure the greatest amount of them as an all necessary to manufacturers they had best secure a long supply of the present crop.

The Liverpool cotton market opened dull today, with uplands at 7¾d, Orleans 7¾d, and at 1 p m. was firm with quotations nominally unchanged, selling to arrive at 7d; sales for the day, 10,000 bales. The New York market opened quiet, but steady; middlings, 15½c; Orleans, 16½c. At noon the market was quiet, but firm, and at the close middlings were 15½c; Orleans, 16½c, with a good demand and prices tending upwards. There was a good inquiry in this market throughout the day. Holders were asking 23½@24c, but selling at the inside figure, and in some instances sold at 23½c, but after the receipt of the closing dispatch they were unable to get good styles under 23½c. The larger part of the day's sales were made at 23½c. There is a large amount of stained cotton on the market and but little of the finer grades. The market closed with an upward tendency:

The cold weather of the past two or three days and the unfavorable advices from the rivers above have had a tendency to stiffen prices in our general markets. Stocks generally are not heavy. This is true of meats of all kinds and of produce. The receipts for some days back have been very light, and there is no prospect whatever that anything will come for the next week or two with the most favorable weather. There is scarcely enough water from St. Louis to Cairo for the lightest draft boats, and in consequence freights have gone up at that point nearly if not fully 25 per cent. since Friday last. Freights are but little better prospects from the Ohio, and boats which were to leave Louisville and Cincinnati for New Orleans have withdrawn owing to the low stage of water and unfavorable prospects for a rise. Such small crafts as do succeed in coming out will load lightly and at advanced rates. Corn was firm to-day at 86@90c, with a fair shipping demand. Ear corn is steady at 80@85c. ## THE MEMPHIS APPEAL

A SENTIMENTAL DILEMMA.

BY OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES.

Now, by the blessed Paphian queen,
Who heaves the breast of sweet sixteen;
By every name I cut on bark
Before my morning star grows dark;
By Hymen's torch, by Cupid's dart;
By all that thrills the beating heart;
I'he bright black eye, the melting blue—
I cannot choose between the two.

I had a vision in my dreams:
I saw a row of twenty beams;
From every beam a rope was hung;
In every rope a lover swung;
I asked the line of every eye
That bade each luckless lover die:
Ten shadowy lips said heavenly blue,
And ten accused the darker hue.

I asked a matron which she deemed
With fairest light of beauty beamed?
She answered, some thought both were fair—
Give her blue eyes and golden hair.
I might have liked her judgment well,
But as she spoke she rang a bell,
And all her girls, nor small nor few,
Came marching in—their eyes were blue.

I asked a maiden; back she flung
The locks that round her forehead hung,
And turned her eye—a glorious one,
Bright as a diamond in the sun—
On me, until beneath its rays,
I felt as if my hair would blaze;
She liked all eyes but eyes of green;
She looked at me—what could she mean?

Ah! many lids Love lurks between,
Nor know we color ng of the screen;
And when his random arrows fly,
The victim falls, but knows not why!
Gaze on upon his shield of jet,
The shaft upon the string is set;
Look not beneath his azure veil,
Though every limb should seem as if in mail.

Well, both might make a martyr break
The chain that bound him to the stake;
And both, with but a single ray,
Can melt our very hearts away;
And both, when balanced, sadly seem
To stir the scales, or rock the beam;
But that is dearest all the while
That wears for us the sweetest smile.

Noon Dispatches.

[WESTERN ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.]

NEW YORK, December 16.—A Herald's Washington special says that severe distress among the whites and negroes of the South, especially the latter, is anticipated. During the winter the freedmen are being discharged in large numbers by their employers, on account of the scarcity of food and means, and starvation in many instances is actually at the doors of whites and blacks alike.

A Herald's special says that Gov. Humphreys, of Mississippi, has received such information relative to a projected outbreak among the negroes in January, that he has deemed it necessary to issue a proclamation warning all combinations for such a purpose that their intentions are known, and they can't succeed, and if the black race believes the land will be distributed among them, they are greatly deceived. [The substance of Gov. Humphreys' proclamation has already been published.]

NEW YORK, December 16.—A Herald's Washington special says the case of Secretary Stanton will be taken up to-morrow by the Senate Committee of Military Affairs. Mr. Blaine, of Maine, will defend Secretary of War is now past all likelihood. A majority of Radical members were determined on his reinstatement until the appearance of the impeachment testimony; but finding that he expressed himself in as believing that the President had been faithfully performing his duty in the establishment of provisional governments in the South, together with admitting in many places that he acted in accordance with the wishes of the majority of leaving Congress under the impression that he opposed him at every step. His former friends in the Radical party have lost all interest in his case, and feel indifferent as to whether he is consigned to oblivion or not.

The reported resignation of Mr. Theaker, Commissioner of Patents, has not yet reached the President.

It is expected the Senate will pass the bill to repeal the tax on raw cotton, with but five or six votes against it.

The Herald's special says the friends of the administration are urging the removal of Pope and substituting Meade, owing to the former's removal of judicial officers.
